

JUNGIAN ODYSSEY 2008

Photo courtesy of www.beatenbergbilder.ch

Intimacy: Venturing the Uncertainties of the Heart

May 25th – June 1st 2008
Beatenberg, Switzerland

Annual Summer Conference & Retreat

Program_prv*

Update 26 Feb 08

Presented by

ISAPZURICH

International School of Analytical Psychology Zurich

Hochstrasse 38, 8044 Zurich, Switzerland

T +41 (0)43 344 00 66

F +41 (0)43 268 56 19

office@isapzurich.com

www.isapzurich.com

Extraordinary Member of the Swiss Charta for Psychotherapy

AGAP Post-Graduate Jungian Training

(* This is a provisional program, presented for initial orientation and individual planning. Upon arrival, Odyssey participants will receive the definitive program, which will include further details.

Jungian Odyssey Committee	Stefan Boëthius, PhD John Hill, MA Isabelle Meier, Dr.phil. Katy Remark, PhD dipl Stacy Wirth, MA Anna Bourgeois, MA	Financial Matters Academic Chair Committee Chair Support Print Materials On-Site Support
Presenters	Biographical notes at the back of this program
Program Key	L = Lecture S = Seminar L/S = Lecture/Seminar W* = Workshop All analysts currently conducting analysis with ISAP students, or who otherwise anticipate meeting analysts at the Odyssey, are kindly request-ed not to participate in any of the workshops, which are experiential in nature and therefore require consideration of personal boundaries. Gray fields = parallel courses
Morning Meditation	Meditation each morning is led by an experienced presenter, and in a different place, depending on the weather.
Dinner on Excursion Days	The cost of dinner on excursion days is individually paid out-of-pocket. Participants attending the excursions dine together at the site; others may eat at Hotel Blüemlisalp or at any of the nearby restaurants.
24-Hour Emergency Contacts	24 May – 1 June • Stefan Boëthius +41 (0)79 401 32 72 • Anna Bourgeois +41 (0)79 525 69 18
Check-In	Sun, May 25
8:30 am	Meet at Bus Depot Sihlquai Departure for Beatenberg, 9:00
12:00 noon	Approximate Arrival, Hotel Blüemlisalp Lunch Hotel & Conference Check-In
Thanks	We appreciate your understanding that the schedule is subject to change, within reasonable limits. Our hearty thanks to the staff and students of ISAPZURICH, too many to name here, who generously gave their time and skills to this endeavor.

Sun, May 25	16:00-17:00	Opening Ceremony Murray Stein, PhD, Co-President President's Welcome Paul Brutsche, Dr.phil. On Paul Klee & Beatenberg
	17:00-18:30	Keynote Speaker Ursula Wirtz, Dr.phil. Yearning to be Known: Individuation and the Broken Wings of Eros (L)
	18:30-19:45	Dinner
	20:00-21:30	Introductory Open Forum
Mon, May 26	7:00-7:45	Morning Meditation
	7:30-8:45	Breakfast
	9:00-10:15	Bernard Sartorius, lic.theol. Eros in Islam: A Glance at Ibn Arabi's Interpreter of Desires (L)
	10:15-10:45	Coffee Break
	10:45-12:00	Kathrin Asper, Dr.phil. The Myth of Hephaestus (L)
	12:00-13:30	Lunch
	14:00-16:00	Diane Cousineau Brutsche, PhD The Way of the Heart: Images of the Simpleton in Contemporary Cinema (L/S)
	14:00-16:30	Peter Ammann, Dr.phil. The Importance of Nature in our Dreams and Our Lives (W*)
	14:00-16:00	Ursula Wirtz, Dr.phil. Seminar on Lecture
	14:00-16:30	Inge Missmahl, lic.phil. Embodying Mind and Soul (W*)
14:30-16:30	Kathrin Asper, Dr.phil. Experiential Seminar on the Fairytale, The Donkey (W*)
18:30-19:45	Dinner
20:00-21:30	Peter Ammann, Dr.phil. Hlonipa: Journey into Wilderness Film by Peter Ammann

Tues, May 27

7:00-7:45	Morning Meditation
7:30-8:45	Breakfast
9:00-10:15	Dariane Pictet, AdvDipExPsych. Rumi: Poet of the Heart (L)
10:15-10:45	Coffee Break
10:45-12:00	Rafaella Colombo, MD From Linguistic Intimacy to Sense of Self (L)
12:00-13:30	Lunch
14:00-16:00	Eleonore Lehr, PhD Intimacy: An Inner Perspective (L/S)
14:00-16:00	Mario Schlegel, Dr.sc.nat. In the Beginning was Relationship: Through it All Things Came into Being (L/S)
14:00-16:00	Rafaella Colombo, MD The Neuropsychological Processes of Dreaming (S)
14:00-16:30	Inge Missmahl, lic.phil. Embodying Mind and Soul (W*)
14:00-17:00	Lucienne Marguerat, lic.phil. Painting Our Dreams (W*)
18:30-19:45	Dinner
20:00-21:30	Ingela Romare, MD On Love , Film by Ingela Romare

Wed, May 28	7:00-7:45	Morning Meditation
	7:30-8:45	Breakfast
	9:00-10:15	Urs Mehlin, Prof.Dr.phil. Love and Hate, Intimacy and Estrangement: Patterns and Pathologies in Human Relations (L)
	10:15-10:45	Coffee Break
	10:45-12:00	Murray Stein, PhD In Praise of Silence (L)
	12:00-13:30	Lunch
	14:00-21:30	Excursion to Beatus Caves Out-of-Pocket Dinner
Thurs, May 29	7:00-7:45	Morning Meditation
	7:30-8:45	Breakfast
	9:00-10:15	Special Guest: Noirin NiRiain, D.Theol. The Ear of the Heart: Weaving a Tapestry of Transformative Listening (L)
	10:15-10:45	Coffee Break
	10:45-12:00	Deborah Egger, MSW What is wrong with “Anima/Animus”? Exploring the Uncertainties of Inner and Outer Relationship (L)
	12:00-13:30	Lunch
	14:00-16:00	Deborah Egger, MSW Seminar on Lecture
	14:00-16:30	Brigitte Egger, Dr.sc.nat. Landscape of the Soul and Soul of the Land- scape: Finding an Intimate and Archetypal Relation to Place (L/S)
	14:00-16:00	Urs Mehlin, Prof.Dr.phil. Seminar on Lecture (see Wed)
	14:00-16:00	Gary Hayes, lic.phil. Working on Dreams (W*)
14:00-17:00	Eileen Nemeth, MA Witnessing: The Intimacy of Self in Related- ness (S)
18:30-19:45	Dinner

Fri, May 30	7:00-7:45	Morning Meditation
	7:30-8:45	Breakfast
	9:00-10:15	Mario Jacoby, Dr.phil. Intimacy and the Arrows of Eros (L)
	10:15-10:45	Coffee Break
	10:45-12:00	John Hill, MA Home: The Making or Breaking of the Heart (L)
	14:00-21:00	Excursion in the Bernese Oberland Cable Car to Niederhorn Optional Hiking Out-of-Pocket Dinner
Sat, May 31	7:00-7:45	Morning Meditation
	7:30-8:45	Breakfast
	9:00-10:15	Allan Guggenbühl, Prof.Dr. Love: Our Most Cherished Anarchist or Path to Failure (L)
	10:15-10:45	Coffee Break
	10:45-12:00	Special Guest: Thomas J. Kapacinkas, JD, NCPsyA Uncertainties of the Heart: What Tips the Scales? (L)
	12:00-13:30	Lunch
	14:00-16:00	Thomas J. Kapacinkas, JD, NCPsyA Seminar on Lecture
	14:00-16:00	Noirin NiRiain, D.Theol. An Experiential Exposition of Listening, Story, Song and Dance (W*)
	14:00-16:00	Allan Guggenbühl, Prof.Dr. Seminar on Lecture
	14:00-16:00	Gary Hayes, lic.phil. Working on Dreams (W*)
	16:15–17:15	Closing Forum
	19:00	Dinner and Farewell Party
Sun, June 1	6:00 am	1 st Bus Departure (with box breakfast)
	7:30-8:45	Breakfast
	9:00	2 nd Bus Departure

Presenters

Peter Ammann, PhD, after having studied music (cello) and musicology, trained at the C.G. Jung Institute, Zürich. He is now a training analyst and lecturer at ISAPZURICH. He has a practice both in Zürich and Geneva and lectures regularly in Switzerland, South Africa and the UK. He is also a filmmaker. After working with Fellini in Rome he became an independent documentary filmmaker. His documentaries include Hlonipa: Journey into Wilderness; Sandplay with Dora Kalff; and Spirits of the Rocks.

Kathrin Asper, Dr.phil., was born in 1941 in Zurich. She studied literature and pedagogy, and received her doctorate in Literature on Gustave Flaubert, the French novelist. She trained at the C.G. Jung Institute, Zürich and has been in private practice since 1975. She has given lectures worldwide. Besides many publications in German, her publications in English: The Inner Child in Dreams; The Abandoned Child Within: On Loosing and Regaining Self-Worth. Her special areas of interest are narcissism and self-esteem, problems connected with physical disability, trauma, as well as psychotherapeutic approaches and perspectives on fairy tales, literature and art.

Paul Brutsche, Dr.phil., was born in 1943 in Basel. He studied philosophy and psychology, and received his doctorate in Philosophy from the University of Zürich. He trained at the C.G. Jung Institute, Zürich, and has been in private practice since 1975. He is a former President of the Swiss Society of Analytical Psychology (SGAP), and the C.G. Jung Institute Zürich, and is currently president of ISAPZURICH. His special areas of interest are art and picture interpretation. He has lectured in many different countries.

Raffaella Ada Colombo, MD (1988) specialized in psychiatry (1992) and graduated from the C.G. Jung Institute, Zurich (2003). Since 1988 she has been working in a psychiatric hospital near Milano and in her private practice as well. As a psychiatrist she has published articles on epidemiology, psychopathology and psychopharmacology. In a psychiatric hospital she is involved in research on cognitive impairments of the prefrontal cortex and the limbic system. She is interested specifically in the relationship of mind and brain and the interdisciplinary study of the neuroscience and analytical psychology. She lectures on these subjects at ISAP.

Diane Cousineau-Brutsche, PhD, was born in Montreal, Canada. She has a doctorate in French literature from the University of Paris and a diploma in Analytical Psychology from the C.G. Jung Institute, Zürich. She has been working in private practice in Zürich since 1992. She is a Participant and lecturer at ISAPZURICH, author of articles and of a book entitled Le Paradoxe de l'Âme (The Paradox of the Soul).

Brigitte Egger, Dr.sc.nat.ETH, is a Jungian training analyst (graduated in 1997) and scientist in ecology. She has a private practice in Zürich and works in four languages. As an ecologist she concentrates her research on the psychic and symbolic dimension of collective phenomena (ecological issues of energy, water, predators, market globalization and also dance) and works on introducing this dimension into the concrete environment protection. She lectures and publishes regularly. Her publications include Reading Collective Events: Ecological Issue of Energy and Globalization of the Market, La sacralità dell'acqua (The Sacredness of Water), Raubtiere, mythologisch und tiefenpsychologisch betrachtet (The Predator: Seen from a Mythological and Psychological Perspective).

Deborah Egger, MSW, is a training analyst at ISAPZURICH. She maintains a private practice in Stäfa. She is president of the Association of Graduate Analytical Psychologists (AGAP), and was a member of the Executive Committee of the International Association of Analytical Psychology (IAAP). Her professional areas of interest include adult development, transference fields, spiritual growth; she is currently writing on the role of the couple in adult development.

Allan Guggenbühl, Prof.Dr.phil., received his degrees from the University of Zurich in education and psychology, and afterwards his diploma from the C.G. Jung Institute Zürich in 1994. He is editor of the Jungian journal Gorgo, director of the Institute for Conflict Management in Bern and is well known for his methods of Mythodrama and Crisis intervention in various Swiss schools. He has many publications, including his celebrated Men, Power and Myths.

Gary Hayes, lic.phil., received his degree in literature and linguistics from the University of Zürich and his diploma in analytical psychology from the C.G. Jung Institute Zürich. He maintains a private practice for psychotherapy in Zürich. His areas of professional interest include: the psychology of the father, narcissism and dreams.

John Hill, MA, received his degrees in philosophy at the University of Dublin and the Catholic University of America. He trained at the C.G. Jung Institute, Zürich, has practiced as a Jungian analyst since 1973 and is a training analyst of ISAPURICH. His publications include the following subjects: The Association Experiment, Celtic Myth, James Joyce, The Significance of Home, Dreams and Christian Mysticism.

Mario Jacoby, Dr.phil., maintains a private analytical practice. He has given lectures and seminars all over Europe, the USA, South Africa, Latin America and Israel. He is the author of numerous articles and 6 books on Analytical Psychology, among them: The Analytic Encounter (Inner City 1984), Individuation and Narcissism (Rutledge, 1989), Shame and the Origins of Self-Esteem (Routledge 1993) and Jungian Psychotherapy and Contemporary Infant Research (Routledge 1999).

Thomas J. Kapacinskas, JD, NCPsyA is a 1972 diplomate of the C.G. Jung Institute Zurich. He has been past professor of Jungian Psychology in relation to religion in the Department of Theology, University of Notre Dame. He is a founding member and senior analyst in the Chicago Society of Jungian Analysts and the C.G. Jung Institute of Chicago, and the Interregional Society of Jungian Analysts and its training program. His principal area of concentration is the psychology of religion and the spirituality of psychotherapy, and as a sought-after presenter, he has made many presentations in relation to these themes over the years in the USA and abroad.

Eleonore Lehr-Rottmann, PhD, received her doctorate in Human Development from the University of Maryland in 1978. After years in teaching and research at the University of Constance on issues of child and adult development, she began training in the Combined Program of the C.G. Jung Institute Zürich and received her Diploma in 1998. Since then she has worked in private analytical practice with children, youth and adults in Constance, Germany. She is a Participant of ISAPZURICH and lectures there on a regular basis.

Lucienne Marguerat, lic. phil., was born in 1943 in Lausanne. She graduated in sociology at the University of Geneva. She had been working for over 10 years as a computer specialist in Zurich when she finally returned to her interest for the human condition, and started her training at the C. G. Jung Institute. She has a private practice in Zurich, is a training analyst at ISAP and Co-director of the Counseling Service. She has given lectures and workshops about various subjects at the Antenne Romande in Lausanne, the C.G. Institute Zürich and now at ISAP. Her areas of interest include fairy tales, dreams, time, the archetypal feminine and Outsider Art (Art Brut).

Urs Mehl, Dr.phil., received his doctorate in Psychology, German and French literature from Basel University. He became stage manager and assistant director at the Grand Theatre of Geneva in 1967. In 1969 he worked as a teacher at the Institute of Applied Psychology, Zürich. From 1972 to 2002 he was professor at the Teachers Training College of Zürich, teaching psychology and instructor for Musical Theater. He received his diploma at the C.G. Jung Institute, Zürich and there became a training analyst for candidates working with children, adolescents and adults. He has given lectures and seminars on many diverse topics. He is now a member and training analyst of ISAPZURICH. Among his publications are Psychology, Psychoanalysis and Theater and Analytical Aspects of Artistic Creativity.

Inge Missmahl, lic. phil., received degrees in Munich and Tübingen in social sciences and literature. She trained as a dancer in Paris, London and New York. She is the director of the International Dance and Theater School of Constance. At present she is involved with humanitarian institutes in Afghanistan, Pakistan and Indonesia working with trauma and training people in psycho-social counseling. She maintains a private practice in Constance.

Eileen Nemeth, MA, comes to the analytic world from the arts. She has worked internationally as dancer, teacher and choreographer. Her MA combined psychology and dance, with emphasis on Authentic Movement. She worked as movement/dance therapist in a psychiatric setting for many years and completed her training as an Analytical Psychologist in 1997 at the C.G. Jung Institute, Zurich. She works presently in her private practice as psychotherapist and analytic psychologist with emphasis on body integration, as supervisor for dance /movement therapists in clinical settings, and teaches workshops and seminars in Authentic Movement. She is also a teacher and Associate Analyst at ISAPZURICH.

Nóirín NíRiain, D.Theolog., is an internationally acclaimed Irish singer who has performed worldwide. A theologian and musicologist, she was awarded the first doctorate in theology from the University of Limerick in 2003. Her thesis subject was Towards a Theology of Listening for which she coined a new word 'Theosony' – from Greek Theos (God) and Latin Sonans (Sounding). She is currently writing a book on the subject to be published shortly. The Irish National television station (RTE) recently broadcast a major documentary on her life and work. Author of books, articles and CDs, she has entertained visiting diplomats on many occasions.

Dariane Pictet, AdvDipExPsy, received her degree in Comparative Religion from Columbia University, NY. She also attended Drama School and published two anthologies of poetry. She completed the Body/Soul Leadership Training from the Marion Woodman Foundation and leads experiential workshops, which bring together myth, movement and painting. She is a Visiting Lecturer at Regent's College SPC, a member of the Society of Existential Analysis and a Participant of ISAPZURICH. She is an Executive Officer of AGAP and a Trustee of the Guild of Analytical Psychology and Spirituality. She is currently researching woman's mid-life transition from a Jungian perspective and has a private practice in London.

Ingela Romare, MD, is a Jungian analyst with diploma from the C.G. Jung Institute Zürich (1997). She works as an analyst in private praxis in Malmö, Sweden. She is also a film director, educated at the Swedish Film Institute's Film School (1965-68). She has made about 50 documentary films on political, social and existential questions. One of her films, On the Dignity of the Human Soul, is about how inner imagination can help a person to survive torture and being imprisoned under inhuman conditions. The film On Love is the third part in a film trilogy on faith, hope and love, produced for Swedish Television in 2004.

Murray Stein, PhD, is a training analyst at ISAPZURICH. He is a founding member of the Inter-Regional Society for Jungian Analysts (USA) and the Chicago Society of Jungian Analysts, and was president of the International Association for Analytical Psychology (IAAP) from 2001 to 2004. He has written several books, including Jung's Treatment of Christianity; In Midlife, Transformation—Emergence of the Self; Jung's Map of the Soul. He is the editor of Jungian Analysis (Open Court) and a publisher (Chiron Publications), where he has edited the Chiron Clinical Series.

Bernard Sartorius, lic.theol., received his degree in theology in Geneva University in the year 1965 and worked for several years as a protestant minister, first in a parish and then in youth work. He received his training as an analyst at the C.G. Jung Institute, Zürich, receiving his diploma in 1974. He maintained his analytical private practice first in Geneva and has practiced since 1997 in Lucerne and Zürich. He is a training analyst of ISAPZURICH. His publications include a book about the Orthodox Church, and many papers (in Vouivre, Lausanne) about various symbolical subjects, such as A Pilgrimage to Mecca.

Mario Schlegel, Dr.sc.nat., completed his studies in anthropology and behavioral sciences at the University of Zürich and the ETH, Zürich. He received his Diploma from the C.G. Jung Institute Zürich where he is currently a teacher and training analyst. He is chairman of the Commission for Scientific Research of the Swiss Charta for Psychotherapy, and is responsible for interdisciplinary dialogue with a specific focus on therapeutic intervention between the different schools of psychotherapy. He is editor of Psychotherapie Forum published by Springer Verlag, Vienna. He is the author of many publications on themes such as: Meaning, Will, Archetype and Health. He has been engaged in a study of mysticism for 25 years.

Ursula Wirtz, Dr.phil., is a Jungian training analyst with a Diploma from the C.G. Jung Institute Zürich (1982). She received her PhD in philosophy from the University of Munich and her degree as a clinical and anthropological psychologist from the University of Zürich. She is now on the faculty of ISAP, and works as an analyst in private practice in Zürich. She has taught at various European universities and is the author of numerous publications on trauma, ethics and spirituality. She is also involved in the training of developing Jungian groups in Eastern Europe and is a member of the ethics committee of the IAAP.

- ISAPZURICH
- is tax-exempt in Switzerland, and run largely on the basis of volunteer work and donations
 - was established in 2004 under the authority of the Association of Graduate Analytical Psychologists (AGAP), a Swiss domiciled association founded in 1954, with some 500 members world-wide
 - is an extraordinary member of the Swiss Charta for Psychotherapy, and thereby recognized by the Zurich Health Department as a psychotherapy training institution
 - is dedicated to education, training and research in the Analytical Psychology of the Swiss psychologist, C.G. Jung
 - welcomes cultural and professional diversity in its faculty, students and guest lecturers
 - conducts full-time post-graduate training in English and German, and offers supervision and training analysis in at least 7 languages
 - upholds Jung's psychology of soul and the unconscious, and their manifestations in daily life, in image and symbol

Programs Diploma Program – ISAP's post-graduate training leads to the Diploma in Analytical Psychology. Graduates may apply for membership in AGAP and the International Association of Analytical Psychology (IAAP). With this membership graduates may conduct practice as Jungian analysts or psychotherapists, within limits according to regional laws.

Continuing Education – Certificates are offered for attendance of the Jungian Odyssey (annual conference & retreat), and for completion of studies as matriculated auditor in the Theoretical Knowledge in Analytical Psychology. For personal and professional development, ISAP opens its regular lectures to the general public.

Counseling Service Cost-free referrals to ISAP analysts-in-training for analysis, psychotherapy or other psychological accompaniment, at reasonable rates

Contact For details, or information on becoming a donor, please contact us:
ISAPZURICH Hochstrasse 38, 8044 Switzerland
T +41 (0)43 344 00 66 F +41 (0)43 268 56 19
office@isapzurich.com www.isapzurich.com